2. Starting order

The starting order for the prologue is set by order of starting number. Concerning two-part teams each rider of the team has to start as single rider – the time of the second/slower rider is valid for the result of the prologue.

The result of the prologue is basis for starting order on Saturday. Solo riders will start first, followed by two-part teams. The solo riders and two-part teams without participation at the prologue will follow. Starting order for Sunday is set by provisional ranking of Saturday.

2.1 Procedure of Race/Timing:

The course for the participants is only known in several parts (see voluntary training on Friday).

All other sections of the course will be announced on Saturday.

Start is organised in groups of about 12 participants. Stages are organised as a Time Trial with single start and a gap of 20-30 seconds between each participant. The start of each stage is organized by a „Gate Director“. The two-part teams start together (gap should be max. 3 seconds). At the end of each track the time is saved on the transponder chip. Concerning two-part teams the time of the second/slower team member at the finish of each gate is valid for the judging.
