II. RULES and REGULATIONS

1. Procedure of Enduro Race Dolomiti Paganella

The Enduro Race Dolomiti Paganella contains the following elements:

1. Voluntary training on special sections of the course on Friday, 12.06.2020, from 10.30 am on. Training only on special stages which are announced by the organisation.
2. Prologue (compulsory) on Friday from approx. 16.45 h. Riders not participating in the prologue receive the worst time in their class plus a time penalty of 3 seconds.
3. Enduro-Session no.1; Saturday, Start ca. 9 am (about 5-6 stages)
4. Enduro-Session no.2, Sunday, Start ca. 9 am (about 3-4 stages)

The marked route may not be left, not even on the transfer routes. A violation will be punished with a time penalty of 3 minutes.

2. Starting order

The starting order for the prologue is set by order of starting number. Concerning two-part teams each rider of the team has to start as single rider – the time of the second/slower rider is valid for the result of the prologue.

The result of the prologue is basis for starting order on Saturday. Solo riders will start first, followed by two-part teams. The solo riders and two-part teams without participation at the prologue will follow. Starting order for Sunday is set by provisional ranking of Saturday.

2.1 Procedure of Race/Timing:

The starting order for the prologue is in the order of the start number. For the 2-man teams, the time of the slower rider of the team is evaluated for the prologue.

For the starting order on Saturday the result of the prologue is taken as a basis, the starting order is determined by the race control. As a rule, the slower riders and teams start first, the fastest riders and teams last. Changes are possible.

On Sunday the participants (individual riders and teams of 2) start on the basis of the intermediate classification; usually slower riders first, faster riders last.

3. General regulations

3.1 Technical rules

Participants of the Enduro Race Dolomiti Paganella are allowed to start with 26-/27,5, 27,5 Plus and 29 inch-Mountainbikes. Fatbikes are accepted, too. Participants have to ride the same bike for all stages, no changes of the front and rear suspension is allowed. So called E-Bikes and Pedelects or any support by electric power is not allowed. Frame and fork are marked with a (removable) sticker before the start. This is controlled during the competition by our marshals.

May be changed/replaced: Hoses and coats, seat posts and other components. The marked parts must NOT be replaced: Frame, suspension fork and wheels. If the marked parts are to be replaced, please contact the organizer. If an exchange is allowed, there will be a time penalty of 2 minutes. In the case of irreparable defects that do not allow the race to continue (e.g. frame breakage), the organizer must be contacted regarding the exchange of materials. If the rider leaves the track for the purpose of repairing or replacing even unmarked parts, there will be a time penalty of 3 minutes.

3.2. Starting plates

Participants have to fix starting plates at the handlebar.

3.3 Mode of behaviour on tracks/course:

Slower riders are recommended to let faster riders past – in some situations track marshals give signs to slower rider to let faster riders pass. On the other hand faster riders have not to harass slower riders! Riders who do so can be punished by time penalty.

Changes to the tracks not approved by the organisation will be penalised with a time penalty of 5 minutes.

3.4 Safety and (personal) protection

All riders must wear a full-face-helmet and knee/shin protectors at ALL timed stages. As second point, wearing a dorsal protection (or backpack with dorsal protection) is MANDATORY, too. For all other sections of the course, even the transfers, wearing a helmet is MANDATORY.

In addition, helmets must be worn along the entire route, i.e. ALL transfer routes. On all transfer routes it is strongly recommended to wear protective clothing or knee/shin and elbow pads as well as back protectors or (protector) backpacks.

The following time penalties apply if the safety regulations are violated:

- No wearing of a helmet on a transfer route: 3 minutes. Also pushing the (full visor) helmet up on your head is considered a violation of the helmet obligation.
- Only half-shell helmet on stage: disqualification / no start on stage
- No back protector: NO start on the track or on the stage plus disqualification
- No knee/shin pads: NO start on the track or stage plus disqualification

4. Classification:

The Classification of Enduro Race Dolomiti Paganella powered by SANTA CRUZ is done in the following categories:
